

The Mayor's Corner

Fellow Lochbuians-

It was a bit of a quiet month for your Town Board. Several lengthy discussions about town sidewalk maintenance and potential Fire Impact Fees on new development, but no formal action yet taken on either issue.

There are big topics that I think may be of interest.

First, the Board agreed to revise its policy and offer citizens that attend our meetings an opportunity to comment on each item on agenda, rather than only during the opening "public comments" time. This will allow each of you a chance to offer relevant input when the Board considers taking action on any number of issues.

Second, we've received a bunch of inquiries about the annual Egg Hunt. Unfortunately, it will not be occurring this year. However, as the Town continues its promising transition into a new method of planning events (via the Events Committee), the Egg Hunt and many other events should return better than ever in the upcoming months and years. We do sincerely apologize that Lochbuie's Egg Hunt will not occur this year, and we encourage everyone to consider participating in similar events in nearby communities.

That about covers it for the most recent big news. As always, if you have questions, comments, or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact me or any of the other Board Members. Also, I'd love to have you join me and other members of the Town Board on Tuesday, April 9th at 6:30 PM at Town Hall (Building B) for the Mayor's Mingle. This informal discussion is open to everyone. Come meet your board, share your concerns, and ask any questions that you may have on any topic.
